

The Christian Coach Toolbox OnLine
'Deepening Practice'
October 2018 – April 2019

Aim

To enable Christians who are coaches to revisit, refresh their approach to professional practice through the exploration of a scripturally grounded, explicitly Christian faith-based approach to coaching and coaching conversations.

“And let us consider how we might spur each other on towards love and good deeds....let us encourage one another....” Hebrews 10:24-25

Outcomes

At the end of the programme participants will:

1. Have a Biblically rooted approach to helping themselves and others find and follow God’s purposes in the choices, challenges and opportunities of organisational and other life settings.
2. Have deepened their authenticity and impact for God in whatever spheres of professional life and influence they operate.
3. Be part of a growing network of coaches operating from a faith based perspective and taking the approach into the settings in which they operate to release Christian impact – their own and that of others.

Feedback from past participants:

“An excellent resource helping integrate the insights of coaching and Christian faith. Especially helpful to those who identify with the Jesus, who want to listen well, ask powerful questions and are passionate about helping unlock their God given potential.”

Revd. Keith Mobberley, Rector, Holy Trinity Church, Hatton, Spirituality Advisor, Diocese of Coventry and Warwickshire.

“I loved the interweaving of coaching principles with Scripture. For me, it really brought the Word of God to life in my own life as well as providing inspiring ideas for coaching others. It was more than worth the money!”

Pat McCarry, Independent Professional Coach, Former Director of Professional Development, UK Elite

“What the Toolbox adds is the dimension I have always felt is missing from secular coaching, that is spiritual insight grounded in scripture.....there has been an enrichment of my secular coaching practice. I will be recommending this five session course as a personal development tool, or a tool to use in discipleship. I believe that anyone involved in leadership in a Christian context would find these five of the best-spent days of their lives.”

Colin Briffa, Probation Service, Knights Meadow Church.

“Carole teaches us a way of working that is biblically sound, wise, gentle, respectful and challenging, that gets amazing results. “

Sean Kennedy, Founding Director of the Refuel Network, Personal Performance, Leadership and Life Purpose Coach, Author ‘church ‘Uncorked’(2015)

“Helped my relationship with God and gained a new skill set. The days have been quality time with God..... the course is a real blessing.”
